§ 17

1. All shareholders shall have right to propose modifications and supplement draft resolutions covered by the agenda of the General Meeting until the discussion is closed on the specific item of the agenda pertaining to resolution under consideration.
2. The proposals, referred to in Sec. 1, with brief justification shall be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the General Meeting, separately for each draft resolution, with the name and surname (firm) of the shareholder.

The Chairman of the General Meeting is authorized to give floor to experts.

§ 19

1. In matters pertaining to points of order the Chairman gives floor outside the established sequence. All shareholders may submit motions regarding points of order.
2. Motions regarding points of order shall include motions which pertain to the way of discussion and voting, and in particular:
 - 1) limitation, adjourning or closing the discussion,
 - 2) closing the list of speakers,
 - 3) limiting the speech time,
 - 4) way in which the discussion is conducted,
 - 5) ordering the breaks in the debates,
 - 6) order in which the motions are adopted.
3. Discussion on motions regarding points of order shall be started immediately after such motion is proposed.
4. In a discussion on motions regarding points of order the floor may be taken by only two speakers - one in favour of and one against the submitted motion, unless the General Meeting decides otherwise.
5. The Chairman of the General Meeting shall order the vote immediately after the discussion on motions regarding points of order.

1. Subject to cases provided for in the Commercial Companies Code, the General Meeting shall be valid irrespective of the number of the represented shares.
2. Subject to cases specified in the Commercial Companies Code and in the Bank's Articles of Association, the validity of the resolutions shall require a simple majority of votes cast.
3. Subject to provisions of §29 of the Bank's Articles of Association each Bank share shall give right to one vote.

1. Shareholders may not vote either personally or by their proxies on resolutions concerning:
 - 1) their liability towards the Bank on any account, including discharging from the performance of their duties,
 - 2) awarding their remuneration,
 - 3) agreements and disputes between them and the Bank,
 - 4) releasing them from their liabilities towards the Bank.
2. As a proxy, shareholder may vote on a resolution concerning:
 - 1) his/her liability towards the Bank under any title, including discharging from performance of his/her duties,
 - 2) agreements and disputes between him/her and the Bank,
 - 3) his/her release from an obligation towards the Bank.

1. Subject to Sec. 2 the voting shall be open.
2. Secret ballot shall be ordered on the occasion of:
 - 1) the elections and motions regarding the elimination of the Members of the Bank's authorities or liquidators,
 - 2) motions to hold Members of the Bank's authorities or liquidators liable,
 - 3) personal matters,
 - 4) upon request of at least one of the shareholders present.

§ 23

1. Upon closing the discussion on each item of the agenda and prior to the voting, the Chairman shall announce the submitted motions and shall determine the sequence of voting. The motions shall be voted on in the sequence of their submission.

2. Voting shall be made with use of a computer system for casting and calculating votes assuring casting of votes in the number corresponding to the number of shares held, as well as eliminating - in case of secret ballot - the possibility of identifying the method of casting votes by particular shareholders, or in another way adopted by the body convening the General Meeting. If the announcement on convening the General Meeting provides for the possibility of Remote Participation, those entitled to Remote Participation shall vote, on the terms set out in the By-laws of Remote Participation.

1. Before beginning the elections to the Bank's Supervisory Board the General Meeting, upon the request of the Chairman of the General Meeting, subject to the provisions of the Commercial Companies Code, shall at all times determine the number of the Members of the Supervisory Board.
2. Eligible shareholders may orally propose candidates for members of the Supervisory Board, for recording in the Minutes, together with a detailed justification, while outside the General Meeting - in writing c/o the Management Board. In a candidate proposal the shareholder shall demonstrate the competencies of the candidate for a member of the Supervisory Board enabling the proper performance of duties and shall provide his/her CV and information enabling the assessment of the candidate, in particular declarations and documents mentioned in art. 22aa of the Act of 29 August 1997 - Banking Law ("Banking Law"), including the candidate's declarations regarding the consent for standing for election as member of the Supervisory Board, satisfying the requirements stipulated in Banking Law provided for members of a bank supervisory board, as well as satisfying (failing to satisfy) the criteria of independence in the meaning of the provisions of the Act of 11.05.2017 on statutory auditors, audit firms and public oversight, and principles of corporate governance defined by Warsaw Stock Exchange, as well as indicating:
